Does Jesus know you?

“...It is time to seek the Lord...” Hosea 10:12

In reading my devotion last night, I learned April is derived from the Latin verb aperio, which signifies to open, because all the buds and blossoms are now opening. As I grow older, I realize that with each stroke of the clock, my life grows shorter and this phrase, it is time to seek the Lord, takes on greater meaning. It makes me think about my relationship with my Lord. When I think of this I cannot help but think of all the people who claim to know Jesus. They go about their merry little way thinking everything is lovely and God will not let them perish. I cannot help but think of the passage from Matthew 7:21 – 23 when people such as this come and say Lord, Lord, it’s me. Remember me. And Jesus says, “I do not know you.”

Jesus tells us here that it is not really about us knowing Him as much as it is Him knowing us. And the way for Him to know us is for us to have a relationship with Him. We need to spend time in prayer and in the scriptures. We need to meditate on that scripture and worship Him. We need to choose Christian friends. He needs to be the central focus of our lives. This is what Emmaus encourages us to do; have a relationship with Jesus Christ.

There is no better time than now to open the door of your heart and invite Jesus in. Time is getting short. Now is the time to seek the Lord. Make your priority your relationship with Jesus, so when we meet Him face to face, He will not say “I do not know you”, but “Come, good and faithful servant.”

DeColores!

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Lanyards

If you have machines to make lanyards, please call Paula Stubbs ASAP at 601-856-7299. We need to find the machines, who's making lanyards, and who wants to give their machine to someone else to serve in this capacity.

Chrysalis news

God is putting his teams together for this summer's Chrysalis Flight's so please keep our lay directors, Matt Rankin and LeeAnn Martin in your prayers as they seek to do God's will. Please fill out an application if you want to work a Chrysalis weekend. Now is the time to get those applications in to secure your youth a spot on a Chrysalis weekend. Please do it now because their summers tend to fill up fast. Applicants must have finished 9th grade through 12th grade. The Chrysalis Board is still receiving names of those interested in serving on the board. Please send names to Brandi Fleming at: brandivfleming@gmail.com. The board wishes to thank our community for all their support of Chrysalis and keep up the good work. God uses Chrysalis to touch young people in a mighty way on every flight.

Please pray for this summers Flights: #23 - June 26-29 - LeeAnn Martin and #24 - July 10-13 - Matt Rankin
